

Bancorp's People

RICHARD MACKIN Principal
Vice President / Finance and Administration

Mr. Mackin joined Bancorp in January 2003. He has more than 35 years of experience in the financial services sector having worked for the Royal Bank of Canada, Bank of British Columbia (now HSBC) and most recently with Canadian (formerly Aetna) Western Trust Company. Mr. Mackin is responsible for managing the overall accounting and administration of the company, its subsidiaries and associated mortgage investment corporations (MICs).

Bancorp's senior management team has extensive experience in real estate finance, banking, development and fund management. With an individual average of 25 years in the industry, our management team brings a broad range of knowledge and understanding to meet the needs of both mortgage investors and borrowers.

Email:

dick@bancorpfincial.com